Washington, DC - GALA Hispanic Theatre continues its season with the Washington, DC premiere of Hecho en Puelto Rico, written and performed by Ángel Vázquez, one of Puerto Rico's most popular performers. Mr. Vázquez returns to the GALA stage after having appeared in Puerto Rico En...Cantado in 2003. Hecho en Puelto Rico is a funny and touching piece that will be presented only in Spanish on December 2 and 3, 2016 at 8 pm at GALA Theatre, 3333 14th Street, NW. A post-performance discussion with the artist will follow each evening's presentation.

In this poignant tale of discovery and pride, a student prepares to graduate and leave Puerto Rico to escape the economic crisis. As he arranges to leave, the young man unearths his cultural roots through the lives of such noted men and women in the island's history as José de Diego, Julia de Burgos, Eugenio María de Hostos, and Roberto Clemente. With great comic flair, Vázquez reveals both the promise and the pain of migration to the mainland from the island.

Ángel Vázquez, a former member of Los Juanes del Pueblo, is one of Puerto Rico's leading writers and television and film performers who appeared in GALA's Puerto Rico En...Cantado. He premiered Hecho en Puelto Rico in Puerto Rico and has toured to Chicago, Orlando, New York, and Texas. His other theater credits include The Sound of Music, Cofresí, Macho Menos, Puerto Rico Fuá, A View from the Bridge, and Quién Mató a Héctor Lavoe? He has appeared in several telenovelas, including General Hospital and Señora Tentación, and has performed in such television comedies as Politiqueando and Mi familia.. Mr. Vázquez also has appeared in the films Assassins, Princess Protection Program, Vasos de Papel, and El Beso y Luisa Capetillo, among others.
