Atlanta, GA – Latinos in Information Sciences and Technology Association (LISTA) has selected Target Latino, a full-service marketing agency based in Atlanta that specializes in the Hispanic market, as its agency of record. Target Latino will conduct strategic, marketing, public relations and social media marketing efforts focusing on building brand awareness and visibility across LISTA's target audiences.

"As a national non-profit organization whose mission is to facilitate our partners, members and the Latino community with the leverage and education needed to succeed in a technologically driven society," said Jose Marquez, President and Founder of Latinos in Information Sciences and Technology Association "We searched for an agency with a strong understanding and extensive experience in Hispanic marketing, social media and technology to help us achieve our goals. Target Latino fit our needs."

LISTA's national Board of Directors is made up of powerful Latino executives representing a broad cross section of industries and technological functions throughout the U.S. and within their 12 nationwide tech councils. The organization has formed a network of the most influential and innovative Latino leaders and it is undoubtedly shaping the future of the Latino community.

Target Latino will continue to support LISTA's initiatives and events aimed at enabling Latinos conquer the technology divide.
