Washington, DC – Award-winning Peruvian Jewelry Designer, Evelyn Brooks Designs has announced that they will be joining Hispanicize 2017; the DiMe Summit is on Monday April 3rd. The summit will be happening at Rubell Family Collection located at 95 NW 29th St, Miami, FL 33127 (730a - 5p) Timings will be from 7:30 AM to 5 PM and jewelry designer Evelyn Brooks is excited to join the event. According to Evelyn, she will have her own booth and will give out gifts to the influencers and different industry makers at the DiMe summit.

“Being part of Hispanicize is an honor for me.” said Evelyn Brooks while announcing this participation at the summit. “It is a unique opportunity to join like-minded artists, entrepreneurs, leaders, and brands who are looking for creative ways to elevate the Hispanic culture, voice and influence.” she added. Evelyn is going to be joining more than 3000 other professionals who are coming to attend this annual Hispanicize Event, that is by far the largest annual event for Latino trendsetters and newsmakers in the fields of marketing, entertainment, journalism and tech entrepreneurship, etc.

Being the first Peruvian-inspired company that is outside Peru, Evelyn Brooks will showcase her latest jewelry collection “MOSCHIK” at the summit. This collection is carefully designed with bold color infused natural red and black seeds from the Peruvian Amazon, mixed with gold and sterling silver. These popular seeds known as ‘Huayruros’ (why-ee-ru-ros) and they have been a symbol of prosperity, love, happiness as well as good luck for centuries.

Committed to sharing culture as a way to build bridges among people, Evelyn Brooks Designs comes to Hispanicize 2017 & the Dime Summit as a sponsor and she is creating one of a kind custom gifts for over 300 influencers attending the DiMe Summit as well as special gifts for the Tecla Awards 2017. Evelyn Brooks invites all the attendees to explore and learn about the world of Evelyn Brooks Jewelry Collection. It is the largest gathering in the world for the Latino newsmakers and according to the legendary jewelry designer, it will be a great opportunity for individuals and brands to socialize and network.
