

Still Time to Vote: Links to What, When & Where

Politics 2016-11-08 14:04:54

Washington, DC – Early voting tallies show a large turnout continuing today. Being in line before the polls close, guarantees voters the right to cast a ballot.

What time can you cast a vote in your state? Click this link at Ballotpedia to find out
https://ballotpedia.org/State_Poll_Opening_and_Closing_Times_\(2016\))

Where can you vote? Click this VotoLatino link to find where to vote and what's on your ballot
<http://votolatino.org/voter-information/#election-guide>

What do you need to show to vote? Click this link to Rock the Vote to find out what you may need to present along with an all around approach to casting your ballot <https://www.rockthevote.com/>

The traditional method that has prevented voter fraud since the founding of the United States is under attack by those who prefer to raise hurdles to voting. In some states, it is no longer possible to confirm your name on the voter rolls and cast a ballot. Voter fraud is very rare, but voter disenfranchisement is increasingly common.

If you have questions or need to report a problem at the polls, Voto Latino is one of the organizations that can help. Call 866 687 8683 [866 OUR VOTE]. Para preguntas en español, llame: 888 839 8682 [888 VE Y VOTA].

Some states, like Colorado, allow voter registration at the polling location. The resources above will help you confirm if you can still register where you live.

If you live in a state with mail in ballots, like Oregon or Colorado, remember to vote your ballot and mail it today.

Make your voice heard to guide our country. Vote today!

WHAT : Still Time to Vote: Links to What, When & Where

WHEN : 2016-11-08 14:04:54

WHERE :

CONTACT:

T.L. Oliver
thomas@ediversity.net