

Senator Bernie Sanders to Address Hispanic Audience at CHCI Presidential Candidates Session

Politics 2015-09-23 13:21:39

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Democratic presidential candidate Senator Bernie Sanders is confirmed to participate in the Congressional Hispanic Caucus Institute's (CHCI) Presidential Candidates Session in Washington, D.C., on Wednesday, October 7, 2015.

The Presidential Candidates Session, which takes place during CHCI's Hispanic Heritage Month Public Policy Conference, provides a timely opportunity for presidential candidates to discuss their vision for the future of the country and address issues that directly impact the Latino community.

"We are excited that Senator Sanders will join us to discuss the issues that are most important to Latinos as the community carefully weighs who they will support in the upcoming presidential elections," said Esther Aguilera, CHCI President and CEO. "We look forward to learning about his ideas and solutions to the most pressing issues affecting Latinos and the country as a whole."
