

Martin O'Malley to Address Hispanic Audience at CHCI Presidential Candidates Forum

Education 2015-08-24 12:56:28

WASHINGTON, D.C - Democratic presidential candidate Martin O'Malley is the first candidate to confirm his participation in the Congressional Hispanic Caucus Institute's (CHCI) Presidential Candidates Forum in Washington, D.C., on Wednesday, October 7, 2015.

The Presidential Candidates Forum, which takes place during CHCI's Hispanic Heritage Month Public Policy Conference, provides a timely opportunity for presidential candidates to discuss their vision for the future of the country and address issues that directly impact the Latino community.

"We are excited that Governor O'Malley is the first to confirm his attendance and join us to discuss the issues that are most important to Latinos as the community carefully weighs who they will support in the upcoming presidential elections," said Esther Aguilera, CHCI President and CEO. "We look forward to learning about his ideas, his vision and his qualifications to lead our country."
