Education 2016-06-08 20:38:54

GREENVILLE, NC- AMEXCAN will partner with ENCLACO and The Boys and Girls Club of Pitt County to host a free Children's Summer Fest, June 11th from 12pm to 3pm at the Belvoir Boys and Girls Club County located at 475 Belvoir Hwy, Greenville, NC 27834.

Children's Summer Fest will be a fun day for the whole family. The festival will offer food, games and vendors from local organizations and businesses. Children can enjoy fun activities including a face painting, water balloon games, and a bouncy house. There will be a free Zumba class for parents and children.

Local business and organizations will have information for parents about summer camps, programs and services that are offered for youth. Agencies interested in having a vendor booth should contact AMEXCAN through e-mail at amexcan@amexcannnc.org or call (252)-757-0744.

About AMEXCAN: AMEXCAN is a non-profit organization that serves Rural Eastern North Carolina by nurturing the appreciation and prosperity of the Mexican and Latino community through culture, leadership, and education. Founded in 2001, AMEXCAN has offered programs and services that support the growing needs of the local community. With the help of volunteers and community members, AMEXCAN will celebrate 15 years of service in September 2016.
