

National Urban League to Host Policy Forum on the Role of Broadband Adoption in Driving Job Growth and Economic Development

Technology 2014-04-14 21:12:08

Washington, DC - WHAT: A briefing and panel discussion on how advancing a broadband agenda for urban America begins with a continued commitment to finding and elevating solutions that will support continued industry growth to create job opportunities and reduce unemployment in our urban communities.

WHEN:

Tuesday, April 15, 2014

121 Cannon House Office Building

12:00-1:30pm

WHO:

Panel Moderated:

Hazeen Y. Ashby, Legislative Director for Research & Policy, National Urban League Washington Bureau

Keynote Speaker:

Rebekah Goodheart, Legal Advisor to Commissioner Mignon L. Clyburn, Federal Communications Commission

Featured Panelists:

Dr. John B. Horrigan, Independent Communications and Technology Policy Consultant (formerly of the Pew Research Center and the Joint Center for Political & Economic Studies)

Dr. Michael Mandel, Chief Economic Strategist, Progressive Policy Institute

Timothy R. Robinson, Legislative Director, Office of U.S. Representative Bobby Rush (IL-1)

RSVP: <http://bit.ly/NULWBBroadband4All>

Lunch will be Served

WHAT : National Urban League to Host Policy Forum on the Role of Broadband Adoption in Driving Job Growth and Economic Development

WHEN : 2014-04-14 21:12:08

WHERE :

CONTACT:

email: alex@capitalwirepr.com

