Washington, D.C. – For 39 years, GALA has celebrated the holidays with its traditional event for the community, Fiesta de los Reyes Magos/The Three Kings Day Celebration. GALA will again tell the timeless story of the Magi with song, dance and storytelling at two performances on Sunday, January 4, 2015 at 11:30 am and 2:30 pm. These bilingual presentations for the entire family preserve one of the most popular celebrations of Latino cultures.

Fiesta de los Reyes Magos takes place at GALA Theatre, 3333 14th Street, NW. Admission is free, but a small gift for a child is suggested. Tickets for the 11:30 am presentation will be distributed at GALA's Box Office at 10 am on a first-come, first serve basis. Tickets for the 2:30 pm presentation will be distributed at the Box Office at 12 pm for the 2:30 pm presentation.

A procession/posada with the Three Kings and live animals –including donkeys, goats, and sheep– will begin at 1:00 pm at the corner of Park Road and 14th Street, NW.

The 2014 Fiesta de los Reyes Magos features Bienvenido Martinez as Balthasar and Manolo Santalla as Gaspar, Héctor Diaz as Melchior, and Neena Krutha as the Angel. The featured performers include Honduran singer María Isolina; Los Quetzalitos, a youth Mexican dance company directed by Laura Ortiz; and the popular dance group Alma Boliviana. The event also will include the traditional Nativity and the giving of gifts by the Magi. Alejandro Negrón, who is the host of Hispanic Agenda on News Channel 8, is the Master of Ceremonies. Refreshments will be served following each performance.

Parking is available at discount in the Giant garage on Park Road, NW behind the theatre (validation at the theater). Additional parking is available at the Target garage also on Park Road, between 14th and 16th Streets.
