Education 2018-09-27 13:16:05

Washington, D.C. - GALita, a program of GALA for the entire family, is proud to present the world premiere of Between Earth and Sky/Entre la tierra y el cielo by Cecilia Cackley. Commissioned by GALA Hispanic Theatre and directed by Elena Velasco, this bilingual production will be presented at GALA Theatre, 3333 14th Street NW, Washington, DC 20010 from October 13 through October 27, 2018. The theater is located one block north of the Columbia Heights Metro station on the Green and Yellow lines. Parking is available at the Giant Food garage on Park Road NW.

Dolores, a young girl living on a small Texas ranch during the Great Depression, yearns to become an astronomer. When her aunt Ynés Mexia, the pioneer Mexican-American botanist, comes for a visit and talks about her trek through the lush Amazon region of South America in search of new plant specimens, she inspires the inquisitive Dolores to break with family and societal expectations and follow her dreams.

"Between Earth and Sky", states playwright Cecilia Cackley, "was inspired primarily by Ynés Mexia, a Mexican-American woman who lived an extraordinary life and contributed greatly to scientific knowledge in this country. She does not appear in most science or history books and this play is my attempt to introduce her and her work to a wider audience. I want young audiences to know that there have always been women, especially Latina women, who have followed their dreams and accomplished great things, even if the wider world hasn't acknowledged them."

The play was workshopped and presented as a rehearsed reading in April 2018 at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts as part of New Visions/New Voices 2018.

Student matinees for Between Earth and Sky are scheduled week days on October 15 - 19 and October 22 - 26, 2018 at 10:30 am. Performances for the general public are on Saturdays, October 13; October 20 ; and October 27 at 3 pm. The duration of this show is approximately 45 minutes and is appropriate for the_ entire family.
