

BNY Mellon vested in Diversity & Inclusion

Education 2016-10-05 12:17:00

Orlando, FL - The Association of Latino Professionals for America (ALPFA), The Bank of New York Mellon Corporation (BNY Mellon) and Seminole State College have joined forces to address the importance of cultivating the next generation in professional fields. Top executives from BNY Mellon and leaders will expose the company's culture, they will explain the attendees how is it to work in the company. In partnership with ALPFA, this event will seek to foster Diversity and Inclusion specially in Latino leaders that want to succeed in financial arenas.

This panel and reception, which takes places in the Hispanic Heritage month, will be held in Sanford at Seminole State College on October 5th.

About ALPFA: ALPFA is the Nation's oldest and largest Hispanic leadership and professional development organization with over 80,000 members throughout 44 professional chapters and 165 student chapters. ALPFA builds and develops Latino men and women as leaders of character for the nation and in every sector of the global economy.

About BNY Mellon: Is an investments company, leader in providing investment management, investment services and wealth management that help institutions and individuals succeed in markets all over the world.

About Seminole State College: Is a full-service education provider, offering six bachelor's degrees; two-year college-credit degrees (A.A., A.S., A.A.S.); specialized career certificates; continuing professional education; adult education; and an array of culturally stimulating events and timely guest speakers.

WHAT : BNY Mellon vested in Diversity & Inclusion

WHEN : 2016-10-05 12:17:00

WHERE :

CONTACT:

Carmen Valle

Email: CommunityAffairs@orlando.alpfa.org