

This Week's District, Maryland & Virginia News from The Washington Hispanic Newspaper

Community 2012-05-11 11:52:50

Washington, DC [CapitalWirePR] May 11, 2012 – The Washington Hispanic is pleased to offer on line access to news en español in the District of Columbia, Virginia and Maryland area, in collaboration with CapitalWirePR. The format offers headlines with live links to news stories today. Please click on the link for the stories below to access in depth reporting on news about the Capital region's Hispanic community.

Summary of this week's news headlines in Washington Hispanic

- CARECEN tiene nueva directora:

<http://www.washingtonhispanic.com/nota11498.html>

- Abren demanda contra Joe Arpaio:

<http://www.washingtonhispanic.com/nota11499.html>

- Piden mantener fondos para las escuelas de MD:

<http://www.washingtonhispanic.com/nota11496.html>

- Acelerar el envío de sus votos piden a mexicanos:

<http://www.washingtonhispanic.com/nota11501.html>

- Henry Aldana "La mente todo lo puede":

<http://www.washingtonhispanic.com/nota11507.html>

Periodistas latinos comparten historias

- En mesa redonda este domingo 13, en el Museo Nacional de Historia Americana

Evento será moderado por el periodista veterano José Sueiro

<http://www.washingtonhispanic.com/nota11511.html>

WHAT : This Week's District, Maryland & Virginia News from The Washington Hispanic Newspaper
WHEN : 2012-05-11 11:52:50
WHERE :

CONTACT:

The Washington Hispanic 202-667-8881

www.washingtonhispanic.com