Washington, DC (CapitalWirePR) June 2, 2008 -- The Greater Washington Hispanic Chamber of Commerce (GWHCC) will hold its 32nd Annual Gala on June 19th, 2008, at The Mayflower Hotel in Washington, DC.

"This year's theme, Building Partnerships: Working Together for Success, is more than just a title. It is our most important goal," said Ana Harvey, President and CEO of the Greater Washington Hispanic Chamber of Commerce. "Successful and rewarding partnerships help the Chamber reach more Hispanic businesses, strengthen our relationships with supporters, and provide new and greater opportunities and resources."

GWHCC has long been the leading Hispanic business organization in the Washington area working to provide resources and a voice to its members and the Hispanic business community at large. "GWHCC partners with public and private organizations to develop and implement programs that provide a comprehensive strategy to help build and revitalize the region's small business environment," added Ana Harvey. "At our Gala, we come together to celebrate another year of service to the Hispanic community in the Washington DC Metropolitan Area".
