Culture 2016-07-12 12:48:44

New York, NY — The Met Breuer will be open to the public on Friday and Saturday evenings until 9 p.m., beginning this week.

The new hours, which will now parallel the evening hours at The Met Fifth Avenue and this summer's special Friday evening hours at The Met Cloisters, are designed to better accommodate the public.

The Met Breuer, which opened to the public on March 18, 2016, was formerly open in the evenings on Thursdays and Fridays.

About The Metropolitan Museum of Art

The Met presents over 5,000 years of art from around the world for everyone to experience and enjoy. The Museum lives in three iconic sites in New York City—The Met Fifth Avenue, The Met Breuer, and The Met Cloisters. Millions of people also take part in The Met experience online.

Since it was founded in 1870, The Met has always aspired to be more than a treasury of rare and beautiful objects. Every day, art comes alive in the Museum's galleries and through its exhibitions and events, revealing both new ideas and unexpected connections across time and across cultures.
